Executive & Managers

This range of executive and managers seating offers a wide range of styles and functionality to suite all offices and all budgets. A large number of chairs come with matching visitor / boardroom chairs.
