

Circle™ Series

SC 200 Series

The working tool for all day performance

Sennheiser's Circle™ Series, our popular range of robust, wired headsets, has proven to be a lasting favorite with contact centers, offices and Unified Communication professionals around the world – and for good reason: In increasingly stressful workplaces, being able to hear and be heard clearly is critical to performance – and long-term comfort is essential for all day users to maintain their focus and energy. With Sennheiser Voice Clarity, noise-cancelling microphone for noisy environments and a lightweight, ergonomic design for all day use, a Circle™ headset is simply the perfect tool when clear communication and long-term user comfort are crucial to the job in hand
