Product Description

As accessories add up on the desktop, space becomes a premium, especially when you add a laptop. With the Universal Tabletop Laptop Riser, you can raise your laptop to a comfortable viewing height, while also reducing desktop clutter.

Constructed of durable steel and aluminium, this sturdy laptop riser supports any size laptop up to 16". Stepless design means no tools are needed to quickly adjust the height anywhere between 151 to 200mm or the tilt angle from 0° to 45°.

Ample storage underneath lets you stow an external keyboard, input devices or other peripherals.
